Defendant.)

STATEMENT REGARDING CONTINUANCE OF SENTENCING HEARING

The United States files this statement of non-opposition to the defendant's request for a continuance of the Sentencing Hearing to March 29, 2019, in order to make clear to the Court, the parties, and the 28 victims in this case, that the government had no option but to agree to the continuance and only did so very reluctantly. Since notifying the victims of the likely continuance, a number of victims have expressed "great disappointment," frustration, and a sense of being further victimized in this case. Some victims had already purchased plane tickets and taken time off work. At least one victim has a conflict and, sadly, can now no longer be present at the sentencing of the defendant. The government requests that the new sentencing date of March 29 hold firm so that victims are not again inconvenienced and let down.

Respectfully submitted,

G. Zachary Terwilliger
United States Attorney
